MALAYSIA · WAGES BY INDUSTRY · 2010 TO 2025

The sectors pulling ahead are the ones the government pays for.

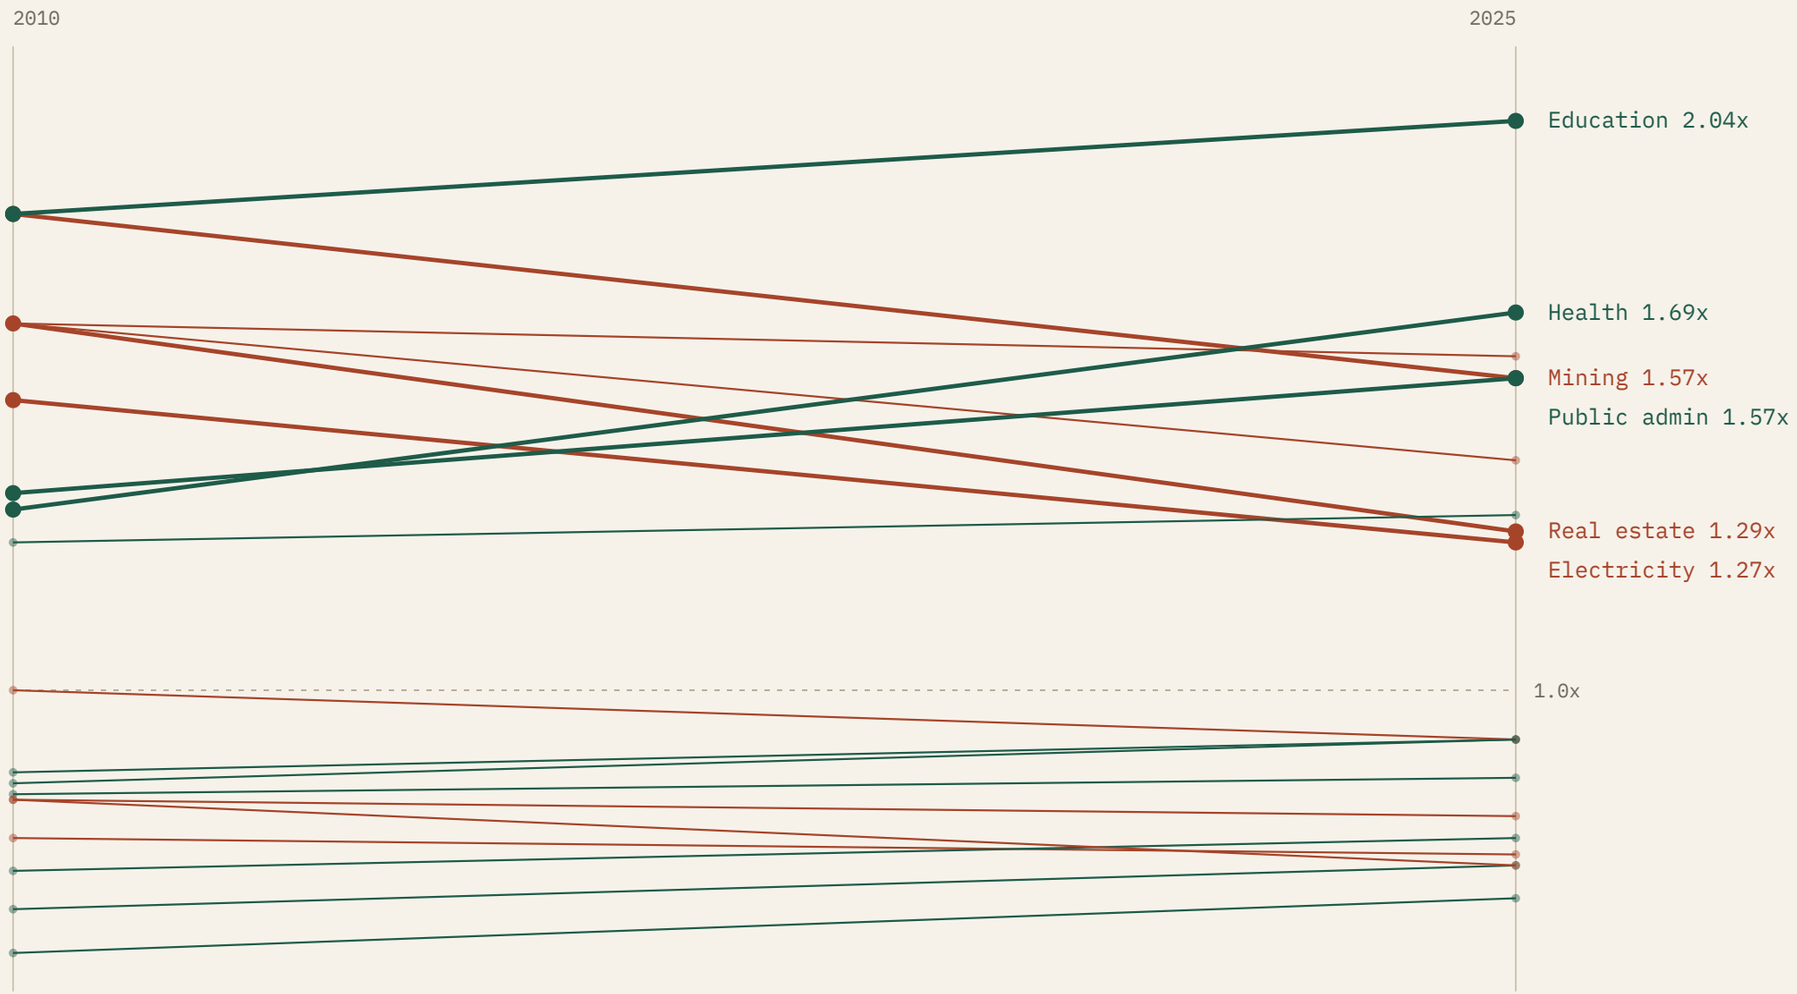

Median monthly wage, all employees. Education sits at 2.04 times the national median. Health climbed from 1.33 to 1.69. Real estate fell from 1.67 to 1.29.

DOSM, Salaries and Wages Survey · CC BY 4.0

DRIFT · EACH SECTOR'S MEDIAN AGAINST THE NATIONAL MEDIAN

Health climbed 0.36. Real estate fell 0.38.

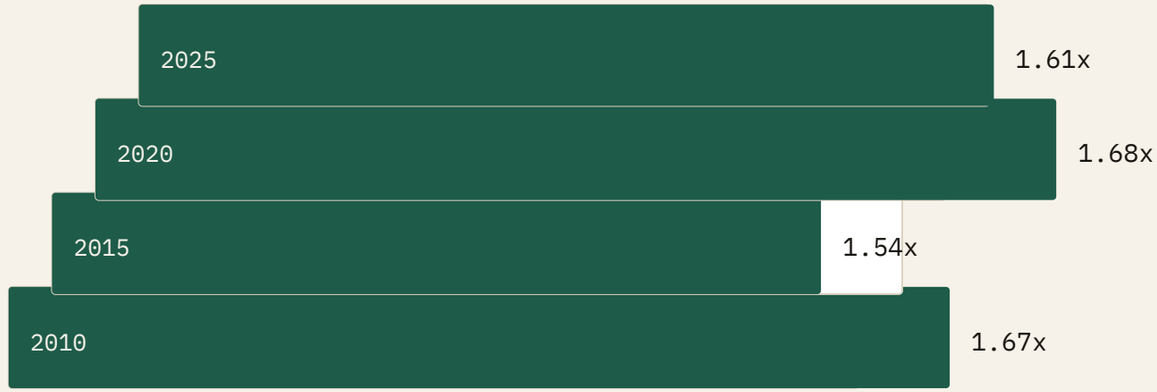

The sector everyone assumes is winning grew slower than the country.

1.61x

median against national, 2025 · 1.67x in 2010

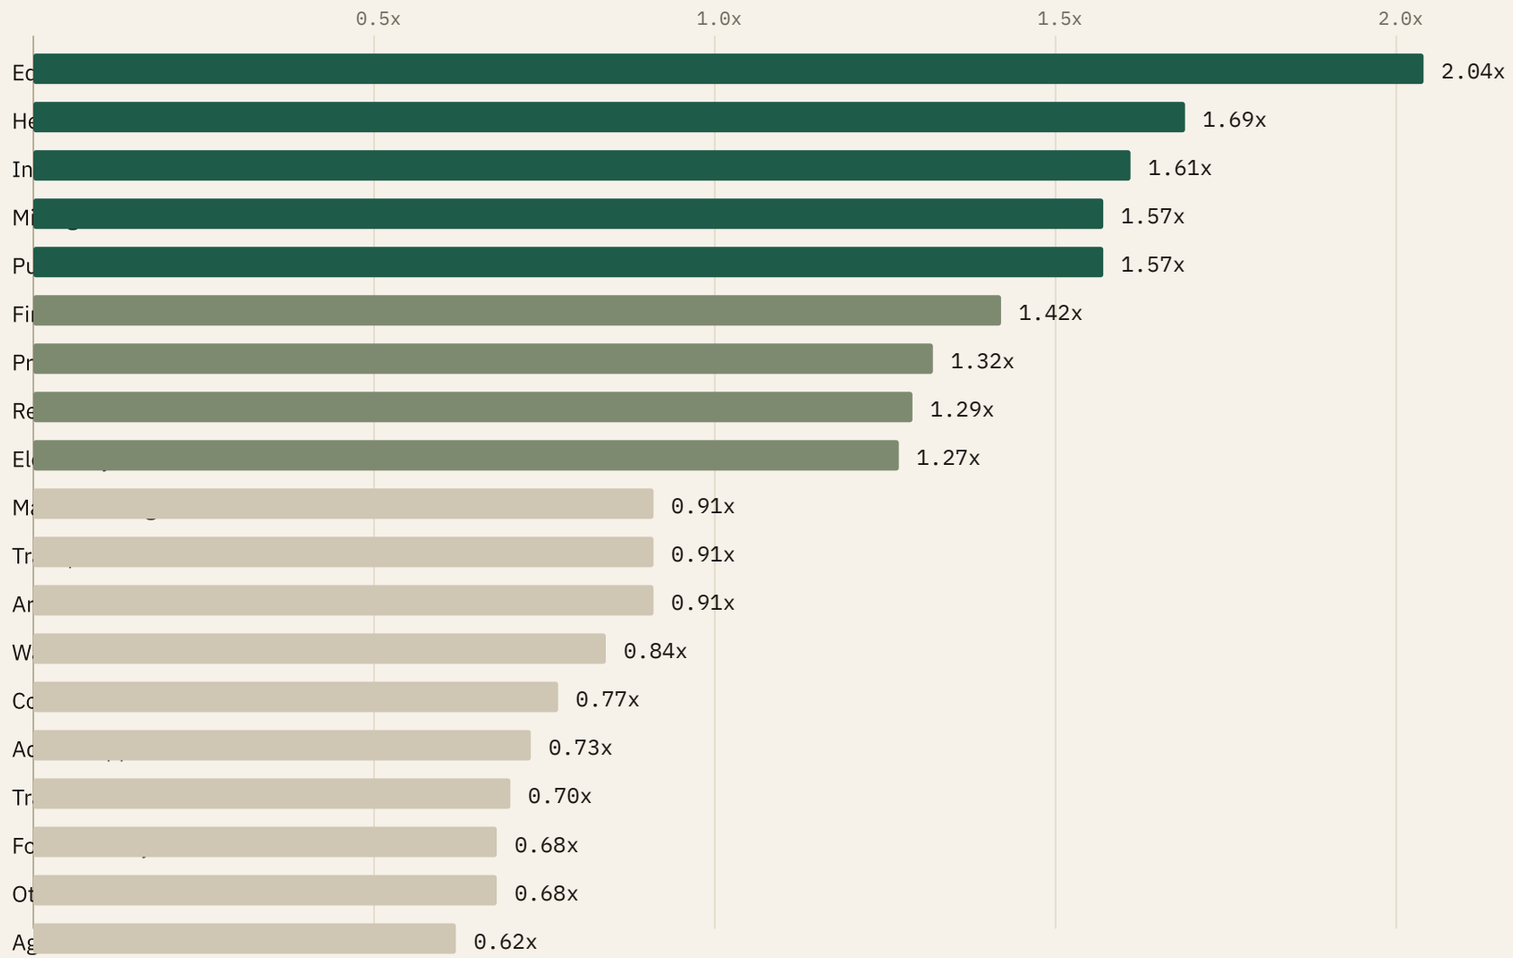

Nominal growth of 89 per cent, against 96 per cent for the national median. It employs 241,800 people, 2.3 per cent of the country.

premium over the national median, four years

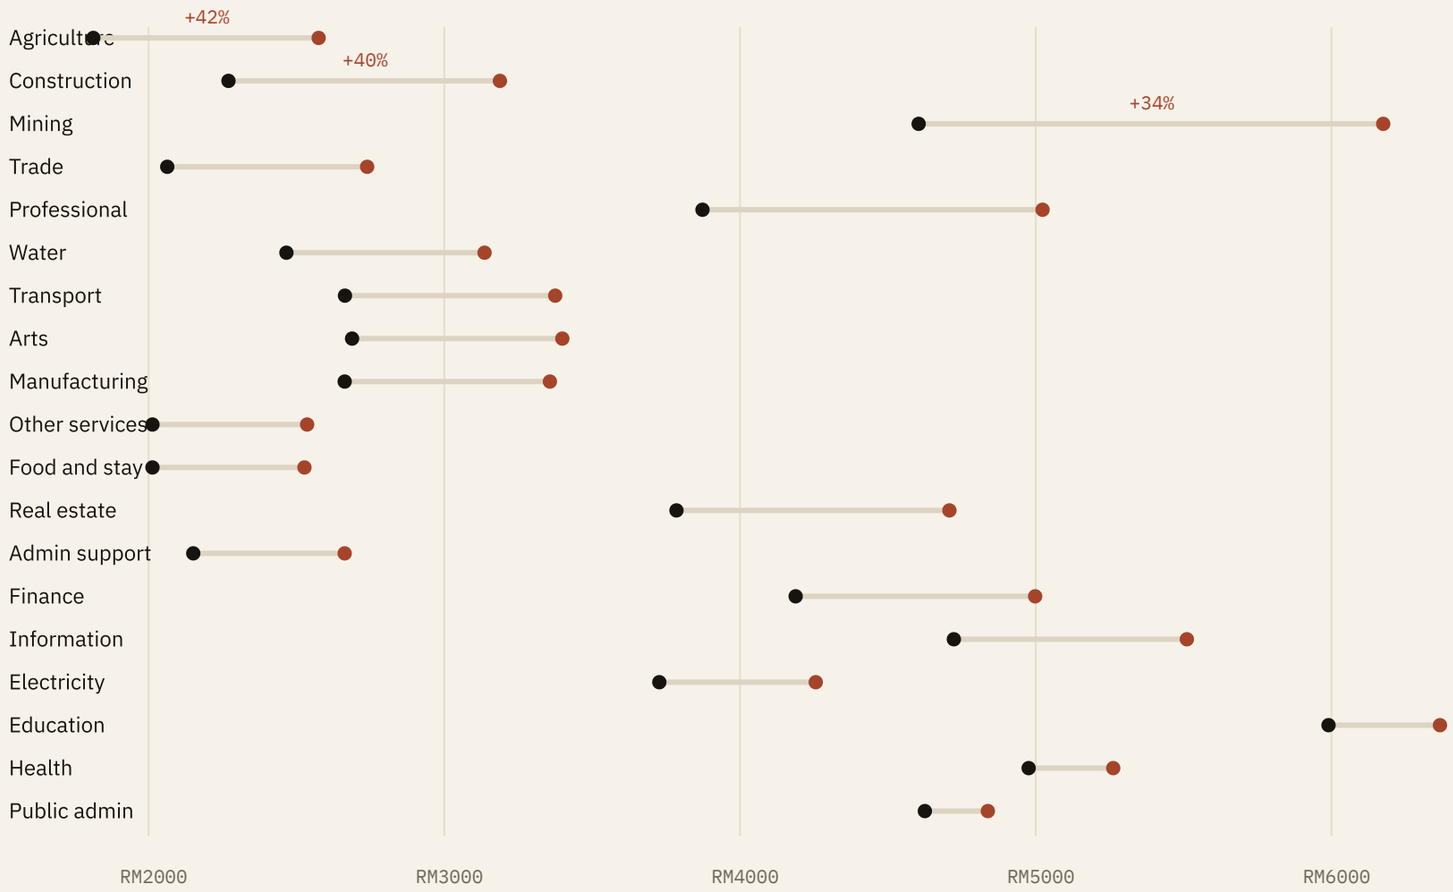

2025 · RATIO TO THE NATIONAL MEDIAN

Five sectors pay more than 1.5 times the median.

MEAN AGAINST MEDIAN · 2025

In agriculture the average is 42 per cent above the typical wage.

The gap measures how top heavy a sector is. Education and public administration pay almost everyone the same.

PAY AGAINST SIZE · 2025

The nine sectors paying above 1.2 times the median employ 34 per cent of all workers.

